

work. life. balance get it in waikato

NAU MAI HAERE MAI – WELCOME

WAIKATO DISTRICT HEALTH BOARD EMPLOYS MORE THAN 5700 PEOPLE AND PLANS, FUNDS AND PROVIDES HOSPITAL AND HEALTH SERVICES TO MORE THAN 360,000 PEOPLE IN A REGION COVERING EIGHT PER CENT OF NEW ZEALAND.

Whether a member of a large multidisciplinary team in emergency department, working with a specialised hand therapy team or the sole specialist in your area, you will rarely be bored working with Waikato District Health Board.

Waikato Hospital in Hamilton offers the latest equipment and technology, and rural hospitals are well equipped for their communities' individual needs.

The geographical spread also means there may be the need for you to travel with your work, either by helicopter, ambulance, car or mobile clinic.

Sites to see

Waikato Hospital with 600 beds and 2500 employees, is the base hospital located in Hamilton. It is a specialised teaching hospital with links to Auckland University and has all diagnostic and treatment facilities on one campus.

Thames Hospital is located in Thames, on the Coromandel Peninsula. It has 56 inpatient beds and consultant services in the emergency department, general medicine, general surgery, assessment and rehabilitation and a primary birthing unit.

Tokoroa Hospital is in the South Waikato region with 21 beds and 94 employees. Services offered include inpatient, emergency and outpatient department, maternity, day surgery, 24-hour laboratory and radiology, physiotherapy, occupational therapy, mental health, adult day care, social work and community health.

Taumarunui Hospital is in the heart of the King Country and has 22 beds and 77 employees.

Te Kuiti Hospital in northern King Country has 21 beds and 60 employees.

Henry Rongomau Bennett Centre is a purpose-built acute mental health facility on Hamilton's campus. It has 100 beds and 560 employees. The Regional Forensic Service also encompasses Lakes, Taranaki and Bay of Plenty DHBs.

Rhoda Read Continuing Care and Maternity Facility in Morrinsville has 30 beds and 48 employees.

Matariki is in Te Awamutu south of Hamilton and has 49 beds and 61 employees.

Community Bases. There are 21 community bases within Waikato DHB.

 Email: recruit@waikatodhb.govt.nz

www.waikatodhb.govt.nz

development

Education and professional development

Our staff have the opportunity to participate in educational and professional development.

This includes access to:

- up to the minute learning and development programmes
- professional support and innovative ways of working together through regional networks such as the Midland Regional Mental Health and Addiction Network
- extensive professional education and support programmes
- excellent research facilities including access to libraries and online databases
- support to participate in personal health and wellbeing activities such as sports teams and wellness programmes.

